FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM · NATIONAL · ONLINE

Emerging Technologies with Microsoft

Empowering faculty to teach, innovate and lead in the AI era

FREE

Three years of AACST, and the gift goes to teachers.

Offered as part of the 3rd Anniversary celebrations. Every session of this year-long program is open to all participants at no cost.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Emerging Technologies with Microsoft is a year-long faculty development program built around one live session every month. Each session is led by a practitioner and covers a single technology in depth, from the concept to a working demonstration, so that what is discussed can be taken back into the classroom the following week. The program runs entirely online, and participation is open across institutions.
